Notes for Paschal Triduum:

A. The Paschal Triduum begins with Mass of the Lord's Supper on Thursday and ends with Vespers on Sunday.

B. Where the liturgy takes place there are no Vespers on Thursday and Friday, or Compline on Saturday. Those absent are bound to the corresponding Hours.

C. Mass in private is prohibited on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. On Thursday, for pastoral reasons, the bishop may permit an additional Mass in parishes, but see local regulations.

D. The Thursday procession should take place only if the Friday liturgy is to be celebrated. Saturday Vigil is independent of Thursday or Friday liturgy.

E. Holy Communion may be received on Thursday only during or after Mass, on Friday during the liturgy, on Saturday during or after the Vigil. The sick may receive at any time on Thursday and Friday; those in danger of death may receive at any time.

MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER GI Pref Euch I
EP1 variations Not EP4. At the principal Mass the Mandatum, if held, follows the homily. It is fitting that all priests concelebrate at the principal Mass. Following Mass, procession to the chapel of reservation where public adoration of the BI Sacrament should continue in such a way that after midnight it is without solemnity. At the end of today's celebration, the altar is stripped privately and, if possible, all Crosses are taken away from the church or veiled.

Exod 12: 1-8. 11-14; 1 Cor 11: 23-26; John 13: 1-15
